

Terms and Conditions

The policy of the 10th District GOP Committee website and social media presence is to give equal and impartial service to all Republican candidates for statewide office as well as those members of the 10th District GOP Committee who are, or declare themselves to be, candidates seeking local, partisan offices.

What this means to candidates and their campaigns: If you are a candidate, or authorized representative of a candidate, for statewide office or local office, we will gladly list your upcoming events (fundraisers, campaign rally, meet & greet, etc.) on our website and our event calendar. We will also share and “retweet” your events or news on our social media presence when you “tag” the 10th District GOP Committee through our official Facebook page or “tweet” to our Twitter account

How to contact us: Candidates or their authorized representatives who wish to have their events published on our website, emails, newsletter or shared/retweeted should contact our office at chairman@vagop10.org .
